EUGENE WILSON ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

FORMER LINCOLN BOY MEETS
SAD DEATH WITH OWN PIS-
TOL AT ST. LOUIS

One of the saddest deaths of a Lincoln county man in some time was that of Eugene H. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Josh Wilson, of the East End, which took place in St. Louis last Sunday. Mr. Wilson was sitting up an old pistol, which exploded in some way, the ball entering his chest and causing almost instant death. Mr. Wilson's roommate, Mr. James T. Eayers, who accompanied the body home, said that he had left Wilson just a short time before his death and that the deceased remarked to him that he intended to clean up his old gun soon. There were stories in the daily papers that the death of Mr. Wilson was suicidal, but those who are familiar with the fact know that such reports are untrue.

Eugene Wilson left Lincoln a number of years ago, and attended a business college in Lexington, afterward taking a position with a large wholesale house where he was repeatedly promoted. Later he was chosen secretary of the Eastern State Normal at Richmond, leaving there a few months ago to go with a big traction company in St. Louis where he was "making good," and had just been promised a nice increase in salary the first of the year. He was a bright and affable young man, just 26 years of age, and his death will be sincerely mourned by all who knew him. He was a member of the Richmond lodge of Elks, which sent a very handsome floral tribute to the funeral which was held in Crab Orchard Wednesday, the services being conducted by Mr. J. C. McClary.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY REMEDY—AN APPRECIATION.
L. M. Connelley, Catherine St., Elmira, N. Y., writes: "I wish to express my appreciation of the great good I derived from Foley's Kidney Remedy, which I used for a bed case of kidney trouble. Five bottles did the work most effectively and proved to be beyond doubt it is the most reliable kidney medicine I have ever taken." Shugars & Tanner.

A RELIABLE COUGH MEDICINE.
Is a valuable family friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fulfills this condition exactly. Mrs. Charles Kline, N. 4th St., Easton, Pa., states: Several members of my family have been cured of bad coughs and colds by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar and I can never without a bottle in the house. It soothes and relieves the irritation in the throat and loosens up the cold. I have always found it a reliable cough cure." Shugars & Tanner.

DASTARDLY DEED AT KING'S MOUNTAIN

MURPHY & ACTON'S STORE DYNA-
MITED AND ROBBED—
WON'T REBUILD.

One of the most dastardly acts ever committed in King's Mountain shortly after midnight, last Saturday morning, when some fiends robbed the general store of Murphy and Acton, and then laid a dynamite train and blew the store up, setting fire to it and completely destroying it and the residences of Mr. Murphy and Major Smith, which adjoined it.

The loss to the firm of Murphy & Acton is about $6,500 with $4,150 insurance; the personal loss to Mr. M. G. Murphy in the destruction of his dwelling is $2,000 to $2,500 with $1,500 insurance and the loss of Major Smith is about $800 with $500 insurance.

Mr. Murphy was aroused early Saturday morning by a terrific explosion. He leaped out of bed, and quickly looking out of the window, saw smoke issuing from the weather-boarded store. He jumped into a few clothes and ran toward the store. Just as he reached it, another fearful explosion occurred near him, stunning him. In all probability within a few minutes more, he would have been killed by it.

The whole building then burst into flames and, the two residences also catching fire, all were destroyed, though the entire community turned out and did what was possible to save them.

Several hatchets, hammers, and chisels were found near the building and the community is satisfied that it was the work of robbers. It was discovered that the lower bars protecting one of the windows had been torn off, and entrance effected in that way. There is much feeling in this section over the cowardly deed, for both Green Murphy and Dr. J. W. Acton are among the most prominent and popular citizens of the county. They have not yet decided whether to rebuild or not, but in all probability will not, as their loss has been so complete.

The Interior Journal's New Miehle Printing Press

TO THE I. J. READERS

The Interior Journal has had its share of troubles the past week owing to inability to get its new press in working order in time for issue of an edition on Tuesday. Its patrons have been very considerate, and with the new machine in good running order there is very little probability that it will have to ask their indulgence again for a similar reason. There is a great amount of news matter on hand in the office which it has been impossible to get into this issue, but all will be published in a few issues, and the friends of the paper are urged to stop in the office on Main street opposite the court house with news items of any kind, and dollars for subscription. We are conveniently located now, so come to see us.

Nuckols-Foster

PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE
WED IN LOUISVILLE.

Hays Foster and Miss Lall R. Nuckols were married in the parlor of the Seaboard Hotel, Louisville, Wednesday evening, Jan. 4th, and entered together upon the New Year with every augury for complete happiness, and with the best wishes of a host of friends and loved ones.

The wedding of this popular young couple was one of the most beautiful affairs of the kind ever held in the magnificent hostelry. The ceremony was performed in the large arch on the parlor floor at the entrance to the music room and no more beautiful setting for a marriage could be imagined. The parents, and several intimate friends and relatives of the groom went down to be present at this auspicious event many of the bride's friends and relatives were also present to see her united to the man of her choice.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left for an extended tour of the south after which they will come to Stanford to make their home, where Mr. Foster is assistant Cashier of the State Bank & Trust Company and one of the most prominent young men of the city. Mr. Foster is one of the most beautiful girls of the Fall City.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Nuckols, and is well known and popular here where she has visited on several occasions. She will be given a most cordial welcome to Stanford as her permanent home.

For Magistrate

FRIENDS OF COL. CHANDLER ARE URGING HIM TO RUN.

Col. J. F. Chandler the popular gentleman was in town Saturday, getting ready for Christmas. News has leaked out that a number of close friends are urging him to make the race for magistrate in the Crab Orchard Magisterial precinct at the next county election and it is understood that Col. Chandler is giving the matter some consideration. His friends say that Col. Chandler's acquaintance being so extensive and his popularity being so universal he would make an exceedingly strong candidate for the democrats to nominate, and it is believed that if he decides to make the race he will have no opposition for the nomination.

Mark this prediction: In the primary on May 27th McCleary will carry every district in the state except one the Fourth. The people want him for governor and they are going to have him.

Preachersville.

Chester Harris, young son of Mr. Sam J. Harris, the popular Drakes Creek farmer, shot himself in the thigh, receiving a very painful wound. As young Harris was passing through a gate the pistol was fired by his overcoat striking the post and ball ranging downward lodged in the thick part of the thigh. Dr. J. A. Harmon was called and dressed the wound.

Mr. T. Y. Shaw who has been a buyer of raw furs for 18 years straight, is buying very extensively this season. He frequently receives furs from a distance of 7 miles.

K. J. Smith has moved to Rockcastle. William Dychouse will soon move his saw mill to this place.

Rev. Pierce Bryant was in his pulpit here at the Baptist church for the last time Sunday. He has been pastor three years and gave general satisfaction, but desired to resign his pastorate. The brethren are loath to lose him as a leader but will meet on next regular meeting day to call a successor.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Lunsford, of Garrard, were guests of B. T. Lunsford, Sr., and wife. The Misses McAllister and the Misses Pettus came home from the E. K. N. school at Richmond to spend the holidays. Leslie Melvin has returned home after a two-year's absence. He has been at Parker City, Ind. Troy Duval is home from Indiana.

Mrs. Timothy Naylor is convalescing.

The joint entertainment given by the Hobbs and Preachersville schools on Christmas eve at the M. E. church here, was a perfect success. The pupils all acquitted themselves in a creditable manner, without exception and reflected much honor on their teachers. Misses Howard and Holtzclaw. The large crowd present enjoyed the afternoon exercises to the fullest and were loud in their compliments, and cheered the effort of Mr. Ed Holtzclaw, in which he showed himself to be somewhat of an actor. After these exercises were over the over-loaded Christmas tree was next, Old Santa Claus dispensed gifts right and left and gladdened the hearts of the little folks.

W. C. Cummins had a fine bird dog to die. His best one was stolen. This one often walked up the tobacco rows and caught worms like a boy. This is a fact.

J. H. Thompson sold a bunch of 80 pound shoats to Geo. O. Spoonamore at 7 1/2 cents. J. W. Aker delivered a bunch of shoats to B. T. Lunsford, sold some time ago at 8 cents.

Misses Holtzclaw of Gilbert's Creek visited Mrs. J. H. Thompson.

We understand that Mr. Elmore recently sent to the Lexington asylum from this place, is now ill of pneumonia.

ESCAPED WITH HIS LIFE

"Twenty-one years ago I freed an awful death," writes Mrs. H. B. Barton, Port Harrison, C. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dread but I could not look like it, and I could not, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C. for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great medicine and lung cure. Its positive guarantee for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections, 50 cents & $1. Trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

High School Success

DRAMATIC CLUB SCORES ON ARTISTIC TRIUMPH IN "MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING."

A large audience greeted the Stanford High School Dramatic Club at the opera house last Tuesday night. It was an exceedingly creditable performance. The leading parts were well acted and even the minor roles were most acceptably played. Russell Brown as Don Pedro demonstrated considerable historic talent, Morrison Bright as Benedick acted the part with effectiveness and the timbre of his voice was forceful enough for a professional. Wm. McCarty as Antonio a conventional lord did very satisfactory work, Joseph Hopper as the staid old governor of Messina was in the proper role and did well. The Hero and Beatrice played by Miss Virginia Mahony and Miss Kate Davis Raney were ably portrayed and the gentleness of the former and spirituousness of the latter indicated Dogberry, the stupid police officer was excellently given by Thomas Coleman, the timbre of whose voice though not resonant, gave the hearers an insight to characters who think a pompous air and much fusion are standards by which importance is measured.

Claudio the young lord of Florence and a manly gallant, was ably represented by Harris Coleman. In fact all the characters were remarkably well portrayed. Verges the companion of Dogberry was vividly acted by Lester O'Hannon. Borachio who was paid a thousand ducats to carry out the vile purpose of Don John was strikingly played by John M. Waters. Don John the villain was represented by Wallace Singleton whose work was creditable. The attendants who assisted in the minut were all well trained and while it is not to be expected that young amateurs shall do professional work yet it is universally conceded that the characters were interpreted in a uniformly creditable manner. To go into detail regarding the performance would be only to add praise to praise. Ursula and Margaret the gentlewomen attendants upon Hero and Beatrice were represented with good effect by Mary Morrison Matheny and Willie Moore, while Prior Francis the man who performed the wedding ceremonies was well represented by Edward Rankin. Their training reflected great credit upon Miss Jackson who has been working with them so faithfully. Miss Jackson is teacher of expression in the Stanford High School.

BEAUTIFUL NUPTIALS IN THE COUNTY

MISS DORA PENCE WEDS MR.
WRIGHT OF LEBANON, TENN.,
LAST WEEK

One of the most beautiful home weddings in Lincoln county in many a day with one of the fairest and most lovable brides ever to leave, was the wedding of Miss Dora Pence to Mr. James H. Wright, of Lebanon, Tenn., last Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 28. No announcement had been made previously of the purpose of the young pair to wed, but their friends pretty well understood their intention and so no surprise was occasioned by the announcement of the tale.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pence on the Cut-off pike. The home had been handsomely decorated for the occasion. Only a few intimate friends and loved ones were present, and the only attendants were Mr. Alfred Pence brother of the bride and Miss Sadie Baughman, of Hesterville. The ceremony was said by Rev. J. J. Dickey, after which the happy pair left at 5:40 for the South on a wedding trip, after which their permanent home will be in Lebanon, but they will be much on the road with Mr. Dozier's stove company, of which Mr. Wright is a representative.

ENTHUSIASM FOR POOL THIS YEAR

LINCOLN GROWERS APPOINT
DELEGATES TO CONVEN-TION AT LEXINGTON

Lincoln county tobacco growers went on record as enthusiastic for the pooling of the 1911 crop at a mass meeting held at the court house here Saturday afternoon, Dec. 31. They are thoroughly dissatisfied with the prices their chief product last year has brought since the failure of the Burley Society pool and have at last decided to get into the pooling game themselves. The sentiment of most of those present was for the complete elimination of the crop in 1912, so that the supply of weed shall be reduced to a normal basis, and the price thus forced to a figure which will afford the raiser a reasonable profit for his labor.

Five prominent Lincoln county farmers, Messrs. John B. Foster, C. E. Tate, David Adams, Sam Owens and Curtis Gover were named as a committee to attend the conference of growers from all over the burley district, which will be held at Lexington next Thursday, the 5th. They go untroubled to act as they believe best for the interests of their constituents. The growers here took an advisory vote as to their sentiments on the pooling of this year's crop and cutting out next, so as to indicate to their representatives what they consider best, but not to bind them absolutely, to any course. Some favored reducing the acreage of a crop in 1912 to five acres per hundred acres of farm land, per farmer, but the greatest number present favored to completely cut out the 1912 crop. The vote to pool 1911 crop carried with a whoop.

There were about three hundred of the most substantial farmers of the county present when Mr. Tate who attended the Lexington conference which first launched the independent pool, called it to order. He was chosen temporary chairman and Shelton Sauter as secretary. Mr. Tate called for expressions from the growers as to what they considered the best to be done.

S. M. Owens moved that delegates be appointed to the Lexington meeting this week, and that resolutions be adopted for the pooling of the 1911 crop and cutting out of the 1912.

Mr. Owens thought that as much as was left of the 1910 crop as was possible, ought also to be added to the pool, and this brought on much more discussion, as many of the growers did not believe it would be possible or feasible to attempt to handle the residue of the 1910 crop.

John E. Foster favored the reduction of the acreage in 1912 to complete elimination of the crop, and R. H. Bronaugh also thought it a good idea.

Upon motion of T. A. Kline, the delegates to be named, went untroubled, so as to leave them free to follow what might seem to them to be the best course after arriving at Lexington and ascertaining the sentiment of the growers from other counties.

Upon motion of E. Gelsel, it was decided to name one delegate for each magisterial district of the county and one from the county at large. The delegates are then chosen by unanimous vote were as follows:

County at large—Clarence E. Tate.
1st Mag. Dist.—John B. Foster.
2d Mag. Dist.—Curtis Gover.
3d Mag. Dist.—David Adams.
4th Mag. Dist.—S. M. Owens.
Mr. Foster was elected chairman of the delegation. After further discussion, the meeting adjourned, a collection of about $7.50 being taken up to help defray the expenses of the delegates to Lexington.

A Mississippi editor makes this appeal to delinquent subscribers: "Fish down in your pocket and dig up dust, the editor is hungry and the paper about to bust. We've trusted you for several months and did it with a smile, so just return the compliment and trust us for a while. Our wife she needs some stockings and baby needs a dress; Jimmy needs some breeches and so do Kate and Bess and is on the hog train and Peggy is sick with grief; good gosh almighty, can't you give a man relief. Shell out those nickels and turn loose the dimes, turn 'em loose and whistle and we'll have better times; there will be fewer patches on the bosom of our pants and we'll make the paper better if we had half a chance. Don't give us that old story, long gone seed, 'bout taking more papers than the family want to read; but help the town to grow and thus escape the sulphur in the regions down below."

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Circuit Judge

The Interior Journal is authorized to announce Charles A. Hardin as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the Thirteenth Judicial district, at the election to be held November, 1911, subject to the action of the Demo-

The Danville Advocate and a nice little fit of its own last week because the Democratic State Executive Committee did not include a popular vote for United States Senator in the call for the state primary to be held May 27th. Now we are most heartily in favor of the people electing U. S. Senators, and while they have not the right to do so under the present law, we believe as a rule a popular primary should be held to determine the people's choice for this office. But the present case is one in which we think the State Committee did exactly right in not including the senatorship in the primary. When the opponents of Senator McCreary saw that the committee would call a primary, they made a fierce demand for a senatorial call, too. Their calculations were transparent to all but the virest tyro in politics. They figured that with Ollie James, an avowed Johnson man, running for senator, and considering James popularity in western Kentucky, they could easily give McCreary the double-cross between James and Johnson, or, to use a trite expression "play both ends against the middle."

Those who have heretofore been loudest in denunciation of the committee for leaving out the senatorial call have been mostly for Johnson for governor, or at least anti-McCreary, and plainly saw go glimmering their hopes of a combination in the primary by which they might overcome the tremendous strength which McCreary has with the people. They yelled first because a convention was not called, for they had relied upon some similar combinations in that to defeat McCreary. And when a primary was ordered, they saw but one hope left to defeat the people's choice for governor, and that was by forming an alliance of their gubernatorial candidate with a candidate for United States Senator.

Our good friend of the Advocate seems to have swallowed without due reflection, a goodly portion of the dope handed out by Ollie James and the anti-McCreary people at Louisville last week. We do not believe that the State Committee was controlled by any man or set of men with any purpose in view but to give the democrats of Kentucky a full and fair opportunity to register their choice for governor, without being complicated by any entangling alliances. If the candidates for senator would make a little more noise about what they are going to do to help elect the state ticket this fall and not so much fuss and playing of the baby act because they didn't get just what they wanted, the democrats of the state will be inclined to favor them, much more kindly when the time comes to consider their claims.

The Smithland Banner published in Livingston county, lets out a great "boiler" that the Standard Oil Company controlled the action of the Democratic State Committee in calling a primary to name a candidate for governor. If that is so—and we don't believe it is—the S. O. is rather more inclined to give the people what they want than many captious critics of that famous octopus have been willing to concede in the past. We would, however, call the attention of the Banner to the fact that the professional legislative lobbyist of the Standard Oil Company at Frankfort is an ardent champion of the Hon. Ben Johnson for governor. As the S. O. political representative undeniably favors those candidates for office most friendly to his master, and as Ben Johnson wanted a convention the very worst kind, it seems to us that the discrepancy between the above statements is impossible of explanation. Guess again, Bro. Landrum.

The Interior Journal has been so torn up during the past week with moving and installation of its new press, that we are sure its friends will overlook any deficiencies in this issue.

Here's something good for I. J. readers: The Cincinnati Post daily one year; the Interior Journal one year; and the Post's beautiful 1911 Woodland Calendar all for $2.50. This offer is good for both new subscribers and old ones who renew. The Calendar is a beauty, while most everyone knows what a bargain our subscription is at once.

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for women's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

One of the handsomest calendars seen yet is the one sent out by The National Stockman and Farmer, of Pittsburg, Pa. It will be sent to anyone who will send 10 cents to pay package and postage.

Scott's Emulsion

is the original—has been the standard for thirty-five years.

There are thousands of so-called "just as good" Emulsions, but they are not—they are simply imitations which are never as good as the original. They are like thin milk—SCOTT'S is thick like a heavy cream.

If you want it thin, do it yourself—with water—but don't buy it thin.

The Courier-Journal last week said corn from seed supposed to be more than 1,000 years old will be on exhibition at the show to be held at the store of Thomas J. Lindsay, in Jeffersonville today. The ear was raised by Mrs. Sallie Ewing Marshall Hardy at her home east of Jeffersonville. Attached to it is a card bearing the following statement:

"Corn raised by Mrs. Hardy, Utica, pike from a grain of corn taken from the grave of a royal mummy buried over 1,000 years ago in Egypt, having been embalmed in the ancient manner and the corn among other things buried with it.

The ear is a small one resembling the ordinary sweet corn. A few grains of yellow and red corn are mixed with the other, and it is claimed this has been caused by the pollen from other corn falling upon the stalk sprouted from the grain taken from the mummy grave.

Mrs. Hardy has traveled a great deal and a good part of her life was spent in Louisville. She recently built a handsome home east of Jeffersonville.

Free for Stomach and Bowels

We are in receipt of letters from Mrs. Eva Gaskins, 394 Madison St., Topeka, Kans., and Mr. P. H. Gavelas, Wagoner, Okla., as well as many others, telling about the wonderful results they have secured in the cure of their stomach and liver troubles by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

This remedy, as all readers doubtless know, has been before the public for a generation and is now being more extensively used than any other remedy for stomach, liver and bowel complaints. According to reliable testimony, it seems to be a very quick and lasting cure for constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia. Liver trouble, biliousness, headaches, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar disorders. It is a liquid with tonic effect, and so mild and gentle in action that a child as well as a grown person can take it. In fact, it is no equal for children, women and old people.

It arouses the flow of gastric juice, and by acting on the stomach and bowels muscles to again do their work naturally, and in time medicine of all kinds can be dispensed with. A free sample bottle can be had for trial by sending your address to the doctor, for in this way Mrs. Gaskins, Mr. Gavelas and many others first learned of the cure. Later, when satisfied it is the remedy you need, do as others are doing and buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 602 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.
